Nepal Himalayan
Mountains
10th - 17th November, 2017*

8 days of magic facilitated by Kira Kay - with daily Yoga by Rafael Ebner

“When one tastes the sweet nectar of connecting deeply with thy own soul, finding the quiet peace within that is always present, one never forgets this remembering. My years of journeying and deepening my own personal practice of meditation and self enquiry has inspired me to invite others to join me in the profoundly powerful and evocative location of Nepal. These 8 days together allow for depth and quietness to be experienced, to travel deeply into who you are - all while being nourished and supported in a variety of ways.” Kira Kay

This exquisite mountain location with its panoramic views of the Himalayan range naturally invites sunrise and sunset meditations to awaken to life and your-self. Daily yoga sessions provide support and stretch your body enabling a natural flow of energy that complements the intensity of meditation practice. Kira offers one-on-one sessions to support your self-enquiry and deepening of your meditation practice.

The country of Nepal offers a diversity of experience and during our time together there will be additional complimentary segments offered, including visits to Kira's social impact projects, that encourage wider perspectives on humanity, life, karma yoga and compassion in action.
